BITTER FIGHT FOR UKRAINE CENTERS AROUND KHARKOV

Marion Couple Unconscious 18 Hours Revived by Inhalator

Mr. and Mrs. William Shuster, Overcome by Fumes; Firemen Administer Oxygen for 20 Minutes.

An aged Marion couple, unconscious for 18 ... after being overcome by coal fumes were revived by a physician and the inhalator squad of the city fire department Saturday afternoon.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Shuster of 867 O'K street, 80 and 88 years of age, respectively, ... at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Grover Cramer of 570 Grace avenue.

Mrs. Cramer went to the home of her parents Saturday about 4 p. m. Finding the house locked and the shades drawn, she called city police, who pried open a downstairs window. The house was filled with smoke from a coal heater and Mr. and Mrs. Shuster were found unconscious in an upstairs bedroom. Mr. Shuster was in bed and Mrs. Shuster was on the floor.

The inhalator squad from central fire station was summoned and operated the inhalator on the couple for approximately 20 minutes until they were revived. The attending physician today estimated the couple had been unconscious for about 18 hours.

They were removed to the home of Mrs. Cramer in an ambulance Saturday night. Mr. Shuster was able to be up today but Mr. Shuster was still confined to her bed, ... family reported. The attending physician stated that both are expected to recover fully.

Another daughter, Mrs. F. Y. Nelson of Port Jervis, N. Y., arrived Sunday and will spend a few days with her parents and sister.

Mr. Shuster is a former city ... man.

JAPS MASSING ANOTHER FORCE OFF AUSTRALIA

MacArthur Sounds New Warning; British Set Back in Burma.

By The Associated Press

The Japanese are massing ... men and planes for a new threat to Australia ... bases to the north ... south Pacific ... Gen. Douglas MacArthur warned today.

At the same time the Japanese were disclosed in a New Delhi communique to have recovered somewhat the offensive they lost in Burma early last year when Marshal Sir Archibald P. Wavell's Indian forces launched their invasion toward Akyab. The communique said the Japanese in a thrust of force and fighting, stabbed at the left flank of the British position near Rathedaung, 25 miles south of Akyab, and forced a readjustment of the British lines.

In the wide theaters of the Pacific, however, American and allied fliers continued to deliver devastating blows at a Japanese convoy off New Guinea to Japanese bases in the Solomons and at the Aleutian base of Kiska.

MacArthur's communique today said air reconnaissance showed a "growing concentration of enemy transports and cargo ships" in the area of Amboina and Dobo, 800 and 500 miles northwest of Darwin, and that the Japanese were busily building numerous landing fields and strips at numerous spots in the northwestern area. The island of Amboina is the site of a former Dutch naval station in the East Indies.

The statement was the second in a MacArthur communique in less than a month warning that the Japanese are building up formidable forces in that area, either for offense or defense.

MacArthur's airmen meanwhile were having more difficulty in disposing of a convoy of five merchant ships and three destroyers approaching Wewak 230 miles northeast of Lae, New Guinea, than they did in sinking, out a 22-ship convoy two weeks ago.

Four-motored bombers, flying 500 miles from their bases had attacked in murky moonlight, however, and apparently sunk two of the five merchant ships and severely hit another merchant ship and one of three destroyers.

Delayed dispatches from the north Pacific disclosed that the assault by Liberator and Mitchell bombers on Kiska on March 10 was the heaviest yet made on that Japanese-held outpost in the Aleutians. A load of 53,500 pounds of bombs was dropped on buildings and thousands of pounds of ammunition and machinegun nests poured into defense posts.

The British said the Japanese had been reinforced in the Akyab area, but told of strong aerial attack on the railroad yards at Mandalay.

American fliers from India hit a new peak in their aerial assault ... in a bomber attack on the 230-mile Gokteik railway viaduct between Mandalay and Lashio, ... of the Burma road which they scored direct hits on the tall steel supports. Two of the big spanners were lost, however, the first losses of this type in Burma ... Nov. 20.

The Americans also smashed at the Moulmein docks and the Pegu railroad bridge near Rangoon.

The Tokyo radio announced that Premier Hideki Tojo had returned to Japan from Nanking on his first official visit outside Japan, and had exchanged "friendly views" with Wang Ching-Wei, Chinese puppet premier of the Nanking regime.

LT. JAMES I. SOUTHERT AND (above), of Washington, D. C., tells of his aerial experiences after surviving hot fighting in the Solomons. Attacked by 31 Jap planes, he was wounded 11 times, but bailed out and escaped to report his story.

KISKA TAKES HEAVY BLOWS

Heaviest Load of Bombs of Year Poured on Japs in Aleutians.

Eugene Burns, writer of the following dispatch, has been close to the Pacific war from its first moment in Honolulu at the time he witnessed the Pearl Harbor attack and telephoned The Associated Press first reports of it to the mainland. Later he was assigned to the southwest Pacific and was aboard from ship-board in sea battles and from Guadalcanal before the enemy was eliminated from that island. More recently he was transferred to the Alaskan battleground. This is his first report from that front.

AN ADVANCED BASE IN ALASKA, March 10—(Delayed)—Army light and heavy bombers accompanied by man-made Lightnings, today released the heaviest load of explosives of the year on Japanese installations and barracks at Kiska.

One high-ranking Army officer said this bombing heralded the opening of a mighty spring offensive against Kiska, weather conditions permitting.

U. S. Force Is Ready

One more planes, ammunition and pilots are ready.

Today's pay load was 53,500 pounds of demolition and fragmentation bombs and boosted the nine months' total dropped on the Japanese occupied island to 1,137,700 pounds, quoting Army figures.

NAZIS REPORT RECAPTURE OF KEY RED CITY

In Africa British First Army Finds Hundreds of Nazi Dead on Battlefield.

By CARL C. CRANMER
Associated Press War Editor

The possession of Kharkov, possible jumping-off place for a third ... German summer offensive in a last desperate effort to crush Russia, was in doubt today as the Nazis announced its recapture and Russian dispatches indicated the Red army was waging a battle against great odds to hold that bastion of the Ukraine.

Not conceding the loss of the big steel city which they captured Feb. 16, or even admitting fighting within the city itself, the Russians nevertheless admitted their lines had been progressively forced back in the "Kharkov area" in the face of hundreds of tanks and overwhelmingly superior German numbers.

"During the day and night Red army men of one unit repulsed incessant Hitlerite attacks," the midday communique from Moscow announced. It reported the destruction of 11 enemy tanks and 800 enemy soldiers in hand-to-hand fighting in one small sector.

Claiming a sort of vindication for Adolf Hitler's waffen SS—combat units of the Nazi party's elite guard—the German high command in special communique last night announced the recapture of the city held by the Germans from Oct., 1941, until last February and gave the entire credit for the immediate operation to the SS and the German air force.

The communique said the capture was effected by hard fighting several days and culminating in an encircling operation from north and east, south and west.

80 Miles from Smolensk

The Russians claimed to be ... rough hod over German fortified systems on the central front, but they still were at least 80 miles east of Smolensk, the key position in Hitler's positions west of Moscow, as they advanced along the railroad from captured Vyazma. The mid-day communique announced the capture of Semlevo, 11 miles west of Vyazma.

To the northwest of Vyazma, however, they apparently were within about 65 or 75 miles of Smolensk.

To the southeast of Vyazma they apparently were much closer, as they are believed to have held for many months the position of Dorogobuzh, less than 50 miles southeast of Smolensk.

Dorogobuzh is on the Dnieper, which here was a highly important part of the defense system of Smolensk, and the breaching of the river line to the northeast might have interesting results in the developing Russian offensive.

In North Africa the British First Army was reported advancing over hundreds of German dead found in the mountains of the Bedjenane area on the west flank of the allied line.

The British advance was of a limited nature. Most of the German dead apparently were the result of previous actions.

Today's allied communique reported no change in the general situation, with patrol activity continuing all along the front and the weather restricting air operations to bombing of the Tunis area and an encounter with an enemy torpedo plane formation in which one of the torpedo bombers was shot down and "most of the others" damaged.

Naples Attacked

A Cairo communique said American airmen attacked Naples Saturday night.

The allies apparently were far from the point of launching a general offensive, however, and dispatches from allied headquarters in North Africa suggested the Germans might have at least one more offensive up their sleeve.

The dispatches said that crack new German units had appeared in the northern sector, possibly for an attack on the key position of Medjez-El-Bab, and that fresh reserves of German planes had reached the theater.

Cairo dispatches disclosed a powerful factor in the success of the British Eighth Army in its 1,500-mile march from Egypt was a new type hurricane "tankbuster" fighter plane equipped with cannon which were said to have scored direct hits on at least 74 of Marshal Erwin Rommel's tanks in the last few months.

RUSH TO MEET TAX DEADLINE

Next Year's Levies and Post-War Problems Occupy Attention of Congress.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 15—Taxes and post-war problems were in the forefront on the capital scene today as millions throughout the nation hurried to pay income levies pushed to unprecedented amounts by the cost of battle.

Today is the deadline for filing income tax returns. But even as late taxpayers filed their returns, congress was arguing over the famed Rumi plan to skip a year's payments and put the assessment on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Republican members of the house, striving for a united front behind the plan advanced by Beardsley Rumi, New York banker, called a conference for this afternoon to discuss strategy for their support of the proposal.

President Opposes Plan

President Roosevelt has flatly opposed the Rumi plan and administration leaders in congress have been searching for a pay-as-you-go proposal of their own with which to combat the idea.

Income taxes for 1942, or at least one-fourth of the payment, are due today, however, regardless of what congress does. No pay-as-you-go system can be put into effect until July 1 whatever congress does.

The presence in Washington of Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, and new successes of an anti-administration tie-up centered attention on forthcoming congressional debate on United States participation in international affairs.

The house ways and means committee is slated to consider, probably with two weeks, a bill to renew the reciprocal trade agreement act. The agreements were started in 1934 and so far 25 have been negotiated. Proponents maintain they have proved successful. Opponents, Republicans and Democrats alike, contend they work against the tariff system and usurp congress' authority over international treaties.

Maps Plans for Meeting

Eden's presence here had no direct bearing on the congress-mat debate on international affairs. The British foreign secretary is in Washington to confer with President Roosevelt and United States diplomats on plans for a possible meeting of leaders of all the United Nations on problems of the war and of the peace to come. But his visit brought into sharp focus the United States probable role in present and post-war international affairs.

Another note on the post-war subject was sounded by Chairman Connally, Democrat of Texas, of the senate foreign relations committee, who said a resolution calling for closer welding of the United Nations for immediate and post-war collaboration would get considerable editing before it reached a senate vote.

Senator Ball, Republican of Minnesota, said the resolution would be introduced in the senate tomorrow. President Roosevelt was reported to have given tentative approval to the proposal over at tonight's meeting. The plans will become the basis for contractors to use in submitting bids for the job.

Tentative plans call for a one-story frame construction wing along Superior street to add facilities for 50 more beds, virtually doubling the rated capacity of the hospital which is now regarded as a 50-bed institution. However, it has handled as many as 94 patients at one time. Along with additional bed space, the project calls for considerable new equipment which would be used permanently.

High Priorities Rating Given Hospital Project

Early action on the proposed temporary addition to Marion City hospital seemed likely today after Mayor Snare had received notice from the federal government that the project has been given a high priority rating.

The AA-3 rating announced for the job by Federal Works administration officials in Chicago is believed one that will enable the city to get materials for the work without any serious delay, Mayor Snare said.

He has called a meeting of the City hospital planning commission for tonight in his office, along with T. D. McLaughlin & Associates, Lima architects, to study all possible means of speeding the start of work.

Mayor Snare said he believed the assignment of the priority rating virtually cleared the way for the city to advertise for bids for construction work. Final working plans will be checked

WAR PLANT LAND TO BE CULTIVATED

4,263 Acres in County To Be Rented for Farming.

The real estate branch of the Corps of Engineers has been authorized by the secretary of war to lease approximately 4,263 acres of government-owned land at the Marion Engineer Depot and the Scioto Ordnance Plant in Marion county so the land can be used for agricultural purposes. The authority to lease is effective immediately and an effort is being made by the war department through its leasing office located in the building at Gate No. 1, Marion Engineer Depot, to have all of the acreage under lease by March 20, so that farmers will have an opportunity to use the land to the fullest extent during the coming crop year. To expedite the leasing program the war department is urging interested persons to call at the leasing office.

Present plans contemplate that land will be leased to United States citizens only, preferably residents of this community, and that preference will be given to former owners of the land involved. The leases will be for cash rental, payable quarterly or annually in advance depending on the amount, and for a term of not exceeding one crop year. No subleasing will be permitted.

Business Brisk At Income Tax Office; Deadline Tonight

Tonight at midnight, fast time, is the deadline for Marion countians to file 1942 income tax returns.

Business at the local office of internal revenue in the Citizens' building at Center and Prospect streets was "brisk" this morning after a lull Saturday afternoon and evening, H. D. Sherer, deputy collector, said.

Friday was the boom day of the pre-deadline period.

The four deputies and one receptionist were "swamped" from the time the doors opened until the office was closed 12 hours later, Mr. Sherer said.

The drop in business Saturday afternoon and evening may have been due, he said, to a mistaken impression that the office would be closed over the week-end.

FIRE RAZES HOME NEAR AGOSTA; OWNER INJURED

Crew of Passing Train Toots Whistle to Help Spread Alarm.

The home of Henry Schlenker, one mile northeast of Agosta, was destroyed and Mr. Schlenker suffered burns on his face, hands and feet in an early morning fire today. The blaze had gained considerable headway before Mr. Schlenker awakened about 5 a. m. Some bed clothes and wearing apparel was all he was able to save. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Residents of the village were aroused by the blowing of the whistle on a westbound Big Four train when the engine crew saw the blaze from the railroad crossing. Neighbors in the vicinity of the home saw the fire at about the same time, but the blaze had made too much headway to save the building. Mr. Schlenker lived alone.

VETERAN FLIER KILLED

MONTREAL, March 15—Capt. Clarence (Duke) Schiller, internationally known veteran aviator who was a combat pilot in World war I and an RAF ferry command flier in the current conflict, was killed yesterday in a crash night landing at Bermuda, it was announced today.

RED CROSS DRIVE IN FINAL STAGES

All Workers' Reports Due by Thursday.

All reports by workers in the Red Cross campaign for a $36,000 war fund quota in Marion county should be made by Thursday, J. D. Torrance, drive chairman, said today.

Tuesday afternoon staff assistants of the Red Cross chapter will canvass the downtown area and accept contributions from any business concerns or individuals who may have been overlooked in the first weeks of the drive.

Anyone who has not been contacted by a drive worker by Tuesday afternoon should call the chapter office, 2439, or Mr. Torrance, 6280. Arrangements will be made to collect the contributions.

Confidence that the goal will be reached by the third report meeting Thursday night was expressed by Mr. Torrance, who pointed out that among the large industries as yet unreported or only partially through with their solicitations are the American Malleable Casting Co., Defiance Pressed Steel Co., Huber Mfg. Co., Universal Cooler Corp., Erie railroad, Pennsylvania railroad, New York Central railroad, Ohio Fuel Gas Co. and the Baker Wood Preserving Co. In addition there are a number of small industries and retail stores and a considerable portion of the rural area as yet unreported.

The war fund headquarters at 130 East Center street will be closed Tuesday night.

PVT. LAWRENCE HUNT MISSING IN ACTION

Parents Get Message at Home Near Marion.

Pvt. Lawrence Hunt, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hunt of route 5 of Marion, was reported missing in action in North Africa since Feb. 17 in a telegram received by his parents from the U. S. War Department Thursday.

Enlisted in the service Oct. 21, 1941, he received basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., from where he was transferred to Ft. Dix, N. J. He left for Ireland in February of last year and went from London to Africa with the first troops sent out from there.

His last letter to his parents was written Jan. 19, and received by them Feb. 2. He was at home last on Christmas in 1941.

Born Feb. 14, 1917, he was 26 three days before the action in which he was reported missing. He was born in Marion to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hunt, both natives of Lawrence county, who came here in 1913. He went to school in Marseilles, O., and was an employe of the Marion Steam Shovel Co. before enlisting in the service.

A brother, Delbert Hunt, entered the service in May and is stationed somewhere in the South Pacific area. Two other brothers are Luther Hunt of 215 Patten street and Melvin Hunt of 128 DeWolfe court, and a sister, Joy Elaine Hunt, is at home.

Harding Reaches Tourney Finals

Marion Harding and Delaware will clash tonight at 10:15, Marion time, in the Ohio State university gym, in the finals of Central district Class A basketball tournament.

Harding battled its way to the finals by turning back Delaware Willis, 42-38, in a semi-final game at Columbus Saturday night.

In the Class B tournament at Westerville the Marion area's remaining teams, La Rue, Edison and Marysville, were defeated.

RAF FIGHTER PLANES ATTACK RAILWAYS

Trains Shot Up in Sweeps Over West Europe.

By The Associated Press

LONDON, March 15—RAF fighters unload the burden of the allied aerial offensive against Europe last night, the air ministry news service reported today, by attacking railway communications in occupied territory and in Germany.

These assaults, apparently limited in scope, followed a series of sweeps over the continent yesterday afternoon by British Spitfires and Whirlwind bombers, during which airfields at Abbeville and Merpertus—near Paris—were attacked.

Four RAF fighters were lost on the daylight raids and two enemy fighters were shot down, a communique said.

Four enemy trains—including one in Germany proper—were reported hot up in the overnight RAF fighter sweeps.

There were no allied attacks on the continent Saturday night, probably because of bad weather.

German air raiders, meanwhile, were busy last night over the coast of northeast England, the ministry of air and home security reported, dropping bombs at several places which caused some damage and casualties—including a few fatalities. One enemy plane was reported downed.

Heavy gunfire was heard across the English channel from the vicinity of Boulogne and Cape Gris Nez today, the bombardment continuing for some time at regular intervals.

No aircraft were heard crossing the channel, however. Observers here believed the sound might have been caused by German coast batteries practicing.

300 Books Given for Servicemen; Need Many More

Attendance at some camp libraries tops the 2,500 mark in a day, reports from sponsors of the second Victory Book Campaign show. With more and more men joining the armed forces the demand for books will mount accordingly. This is only one of the many reasons why you, and you and you should contribute at least one good book to the campaign now in progress.

Take one (or as many as you have) good book, one you have enjoyed immensely, to the city library where they are being collected, and help put over the city's campaign slogan, "Every person contributing a good book."

The campaign this year is not a house to house canvass. "We are depending on citizens to help out by taking their books to the library as a part of their contribution to the entertainment of the men in service," committee leaders said. A check at the library shows that, to date, 300 books have been contributed.

The Victory Book campaign is being sponsored nationally by the American Library Association, Red Cross and USO. The local committee includes Mrs. H. K. Mouser, chairman, Earl N. Hale, R. C. Anderson, James C. Woods and Robert Mason. Miss Helen Kramer, city librarian, is director of the drive.

To date, these seven young Americans have run up a score of 60 confirmed Japanese planes, most of them Zeros, and of this number Foss is officially credited with 26. Flying the Navy's No. 1 fighter plane, the Grumman, these boys, together with other American Army and Navy pilots and their supporting ground and carrier crews, are writing an epic of the skies which matches the greatest tales of heroism in American history.

DOUBTS PRODUCTION RATE CAN CONTINUE

Ayers Says Increase Can Not Be Maintained.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 15—War production can not continue to increase throughout 1943 at the rate it followed in 1942, Leonard P. Ayres, vice president of the Cleveland Trust Co., declared today.

"At the end of 1942 the volume of our production for war was twice as great as it had been in the first month of the war," the economist said in the Cleveland Trust monthly bulletin. "If such a pace should be continued there would be left for civilian use an entirely inadequate amount of output."

Ayres said federal reserve statistics showed the output for civilian use had been shrinking, and last December was not more than about three-fifths as large as it had been in January, 1942.

"From the middle of 1941 to the end of 1942 production for war expanded enormously. Its volume increased so much that by the end of last year it was five times as great as it had been in June of 1942," Ayres declared, adding:

"Meanwhile production for civilian use was being squeezed downward into smaller and smaller dimensions. Clearly the processes of shrinkage can not continue much longer at such pace, because civilian needs must be met, and they must be maintained at a level high enough to sustain the essential war production."

Ayres declared much construction and tooling was done in the period prior to the middle of 1941 which contributed to the expansion of industry, and contended that the most spectacular change was the conversion of the automobile industry from civilian output to war production.

ALGIERS, March 15 — Gen. Henri Giraud, after offering to meet Gen. Charles De Gaulle halfway in a union that must be effected ... among ... Frenchmen ... of the French republic, today drafted a series of decrees repudiating the last vestiges of Vichy influence in Africa.

The cold and wary commander-in-chief ... was welding a fighting force of 300,000 men equipped with American weapons and solemnly promised the people of the conquered homeland the ... rights to choose a provisional government themselves will be fully safeguarded."

Giraud did not mention De Gaulle by name, but he implied in a speech last night he and De Gaulle could work out a form of mutual trusteeship pending the day of victory.

Giraud embraced the principles of the Atlantic charter, and promised to abolish all Vichy legislation—particularly the anti-Jewish decrees—to restore democratic functions in North Africa including the election of municipal assemblies and consuls general, and to eliminate all axis influence, whether "measures or men."

The first formal decrees are expected to be published within the next few days.

A fighting French delegation headed by Gen. Georges Catroux, is expected in Algiers shortly, and some observers believe this will speed negotiations to join the two French groups.

(Fighting French reaction to Giraud's speech was reserved. A spokesman in London expressed disappointment that Giraud did not specifically state his intention of ousting Bergeret, Nogues and Marcel Peyrouton, Algerian governor. At the same time the spokesman suggested the Giraud declaration had brought the two groups closer together.

Ohio Seaman Tells of Loss of Ship at Sea

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, March 15 — Ralph Brown of Washington, D. C., told today of helping an injured shipmate, Seaman First Class Ralph A. Multer of Portsmouth, O., to a drifting board when their merchant ship was torpedoed and sunk in the North Atlantic late in February.

Brown, a native of New Matamoras, O., and a merchantman aboard the vessel from which two men were known dead and 31 others were reported missing, was one of the survivors arriving in this port, the navy announced.

Brown said he lashed Multer to the board with his lifejacket when he noticed the seaman had been hurt and was having trouble swimming.

"Then I looked around for something to cling to myself," Brown recounted, "and as if that water wasn't cold enough I wound up on an ice box which had come to the surface from our ship."

Multer's fate was not learned.

DEMAND FOR STEEL PLATES INCREASING

New Production Records Result, Magazine Reports.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 15—Intensified demand for steel plates to supply the enlarged shipbuilding program and other war industries "has resulted in new production records," the magazine Steel noted today.

"In February the average daily rate was the highest in history, though the short month precluded a tonnage record. With March three days longer it seems probable all prior output records will go by the board."

Deliveries, steel said, "remain at about the same position as for the past few weeks, hot-rolled sheets generally available at seven to eight weeks, with some producers able to promise about six weeks. Cold-rolled are slightly more extended, at seven to nine weeks, and galvanized about the same. Structural shapes can be had in six to eight weeks, though this could be better were sufficient steel available to mills for this purpose. Small volume of shapes causes delay in accumulating sufficient tonnage for a rolling."

National ingot production fell one-half point last week to 99 per cent of estimated capacity, Steel said, because of necessity for open hearth furnace repairs. A one-point advance to 100 per cent of capacity at Pittsburgh placed that district at the highest since Aug. 30, 1941. The Cincinnati area fell six points to 85, while unchanged districts included Youngstown 97, Wheeling 84½, Cleveland 92½ and Detroit 91.

Precedents

Many, many precedents have been shattered in this war, which is a new kind of war, making up its own rules as it rolls along.

This demands that we, whether we be at grips with the enemy or carrying on on the home front, think and plan not in terms of the first world war, but in terms of this war of modern science turned, for the time being, to destruction instead of to progress.

Better to Buy Bonds Than to Wear Them

Our armed forces on land, the sea and the air are giving a splendid account of themselves—living up to their great traditions. But they cannot win this war without our support. Modern warfare is as much a battle of war production and War Bonds as it is of armed forces. One cannot win without the other. That is where every one of us can have a part. We can cheerfully pay all the income taxes that are levied—and then buy bonds with what we have left.

If you think that is too great a price to pay for our heritage of freedom—ask some Frenchman whether or not it is a worthwhile investment.

MARION MAN'S BROTHER KILLED IN NORTH AFRICA

Cpl. Louis Garceau in Automobile Accident.

Cpl. Louis Garceau, 36, brother of Roy J. Garceau of 564 Vernon Heights boulevard, was killed in an automobile accident Feb. 25 in North Africa.

The war department notified his widow at Mandan, N. D., and she in turn informed the eight surviving brothers and sisters. Details of the accident were not included in the formal notice from the war department.

Corporal Garceau, a member of the firm of Ed Garceau & Son at South Tacoma, Wash., entered service last July and in mid-December was sent to Africa as a member of the signal corps attached to an air squadron. He was married last November.

Corporal Garceau visited his brother and family here several times, the last visit being made a year ago last fall when he and his father were here. The father died last July.

ILLNESS FATAL TO FRANCIS E. PATTEN

Marion County Farmer Dies at Hospital.

Francis Edwin Patten, 66, Marion county farmer, died Saturday in City hospital.

He had been bedfast two weeks, and was taken to the hospital from his home five miles east of Marion on the Claridon pike, Tuesday for a major operation.

Born in Marion county, April 20, 1876, he was a son of Albert and Lillie Grace Patten. His marriage on June 1, 1918, was to Miss Sara Struthers, who survives.

Besides the widow he is survived by one son, Pvt. Ory S. Patten, stationed at Camp Toccoa, Ga.; two daughters, Miss Lillie Patten of Marion and Miss Iona Patten at home; two grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Russell Graham of Harpster; and three brothers, Don Patten of Mt. Vernon; Truman Patten of Clinton, Tenn., and Orrie Patten of Marion.

He lived in Marion county for 24 years, moving from Iberia.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the residence where friends may call. Rev. Blum of the Bucyrus Reformed church will officiate, and burial will be made in the Brush Ridge cemetery, northwest of Marion.

German Militarism Runs Deeper Than Hitler's Nazi Party

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Hitler's reported nervous collapse, whether it proves to be true or just another bit of wishful thinking about this arch-enemy of civilization, is a pointed reminder of one of the greatest of the allied problems which now are occupying so much attention in Washington and London—the extermination of the cause of German militaristic aggression.

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, who is in Washington referred to this task of uprooting at a press conference during the week-end. Said he:

"We must make sure that Germany and Japan are never able to start this business again. That is the fundamental job of our statesmanship."

Of course Japan must be sterilized as well as the reich, but the situation in both countries is basically similar, so let's devote this column to the Germans. One's first reaction to the Hitler report is the gratifying hope that it's true and that he never recovers. The effect on the morale of his country undoubtedly would be devastating. Germanys whole war effort is built about his amazing leadership which, diabolical though it is, still represents one of the most powerful of history.

Having studied Hitler at close range in Germany, I believe he and Nazism are one and the same. He is the soul of this barbarism, and when he goes the dictatorship won't long survive.

We mustn't forget the fanatical young Nazis regard the fuehrer not only as their political chief but actually as a messiah.

However we shall make a terrible mistake if we thing we shall have eliminated German militarism when we have hanged him and his captains, or otherwise disposed of them.

German militarism was whelped in Prussia—and I mean Prussia. It has been the arrogant, swaggering, bullying cause of trouble ever since that kingdom emerged in 1763. Prussian militarists now, as for generations past, dominate the German military machine.

The Prussian chiefs always looking for a chance to conquer the world decided to profit by Hitler's amazing hold on the people of Germany.

SENATE TO KEEP EYE ON POST-WAR POLICY

Sen. Connally Says Proposed Plan Due for Changes.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 15—A resolution calling for closer welding of the United Nations for immediate and post-war collaboration was promised considerable editing today before it ever reaches a vote in the senate.

President Roosevelt was reported to have given tentative indorsement to the proposal's broad objectives at a White House conference with six senators yesterday, but Chairman Connally (D-said, and the guerrillas now are said to be isolated from the rest of France.

More than 1,000 French mobile guards have been hunting the youths, but La Suisse said the impression prevailed the French guards had "no enthusiasm" for the job.

The correspondent of La Suisse said the youngsters had been supplied since March 8 with food, arms and munitions, including machineguns, by foreign agents.

Officers of the former French army were said to be in command.

TAX RETURNS POUR IN AT DEADLINE

Ohio Offices Report Big Rush on Last Day.

By The Associated Press

Money poured into Ohio's internal revenue offices at an unprecedented volume today, deadline for filing returns on 1942 income.

At Cleveland, center of the industrialized northern section of the state, about 700,000 mailed returns had not been opened and Saturday and Sunday payments were more than twice the number filed the first two months this year.

Collector Frank F. Gentsch, who charged last week that many persons had assumed a "come-and-get-me" attitude, remarked today that they "evidently have been jolted out of the defiant attitude and are beginning to realize that all these plans of pay-as-you-go don't mean a thing now."

More than 1,000,000 returns have been filed, Gentsch said, but there are 400,000 to 500,000 still to come.

NEW PRICE ORDER ON REFRIGERATORS

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 15 — A new maximum price order governing sale of non-mechanical refrigerators now being produced under war production limitation order L-7-C became effective today.

Covering all retailers and wholesalers the office of price administration action is designed to provide equitable distribution of newly manufactured non-mechanical refrigerators because of a threatened shortage.

Edward C. Welsh, regional OPA price executive, said the order provides:

Retailers purchasing direct from a manufacturer establish their maximum price by adding 80 per cent to the appoved manufacturer's carload price and adjusting this figure upward to the nearest multiple of 50 cents;

Retailers puprchasing from a distributor establish their maximum price by adding 100 per cent to the approved manufacturer's carload price and adjusting this figure to the nearest multiple of 50 cents; and

Wholesalers are required to adjust prices to retailers whenever cumulative purchases entitle retailers to lower prices, and to rebate the differences between prices by the 15th of the month following delivery. Moreover, wholesalers are required to allow a two per cent cash discount, and both wholesalers and retailers are allowed to add 1 per cent to maximum prices to cover freight charges.

LIQUOR AGENT SHOT AFTER RAID ON CLUB

Patrons Stage Riot While Held in Town Hall.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 15 — A riot staged by angry patrons detained in the suburban Brooklyn town hall after a raid on an unlicensed liquor spot resulted in the shooting early yesterday morning of Vernon C. Tobias, 48, of Fremont, O., a state liquor inspector.

Tobias was shot through the groin by his own service revolver, Frank Noble, 62, of Cleveland, a patron of the Rod and Gun club, is held in jail on a warrant sworn out by Floyd A. Gable, state agent who led the raid. The warrant charges Noble with shooting to kill.

State men, gathered from all over Ohio, raided the club, arrested 32 patrons, and transported them to the Brooklyn village town hall.

Mayor Orwell Kresge announced all were charged with loitering.

The mayor's announcement was met with ugly remarks, and one of a crowd milling near the town hall door yelled: "Let's get out of here!"

State men formed a solid line at the door as an angry group attempted to press past them. A revolver shot stopped the rush toward the exit and Tobias fell, moaning.

Joseph Augustine, 35, operator of the club, is charged with operating a liquor spot without a license and with illegal possession of intoxicating liquor which state men said they found at the club bar and in its office safe.

Mayor Kresge said he would furnish gasoline ration boards with the names of the 32 customers caught in the raid on the suburban night spot.

Anniversary Event Set by Trainmen's Auxiliary

Final arrangements for the golden anniversary party Thursday night were completed when members of Snowdrop Division No. 167, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locolive Engineers, met all day Friday with Mrs. Margaret Rank of Summit street.

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the division will be celebrated with a dinner at 6:30 at the Manor House. Husbands will be guests.

Arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Edith Mahoney, Mrs. Rank, Mrs. Nina Rettig and Mrs. Mabel Donley.

Axis Threatens To Send Troops To Rout French

BERN, SWITZERLAND, March 15—Axis occupation authorities in France have threatened to send German and Italian troops against several thousand heavily armed young Frenchmen, in hideouts along the southern shore of Lake Geneva, unless they surrender by tonight, the Geneva newspaper La Suisse said today. The French youths are in rebellion against forced labor in Germany.

Italian troops already have cut wire communications from the St. Gingolph area along the eastern end of the lake, the dispatch Texas) of the foreign relations committee left no doubt there would have to be some changes.

The committee chairman told reporters he was in favor of stating now that the United States wanted to agree with its allies that all would join in maintaining world peace and security after the war, but indicated he was prepared to go no further at this time.

HOOVER CALLS WAR AIM LASTING PEACE

Former President Addresses Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 15—Former President Herbert Hoover told a joint session of the Iowa legislature today "the purpose of this war, the most terrible of human centuries, is to make a lasting peace."

The native Iowan said in his prepared address that Americans, regardless of past views or political groups, are united in a single purpose to win the war and build "a re-world where we can hope to live in peace."

Declaring military alone will not give peace, Hoover said that "if we are to do a better job of peace making this time it will be because of a better public understanding of the problems and a better preparedness to meet them."

Can Collection Here Growing in Volume

Marion's tin collections are getting better and better, Safety-Service Director Clyde Caldwell said today in reporting that Round 3 would be completed either this afternoon or Tuesday.

Icy street and generally bad weather several days last week made it impossible to maintain the schedule as planned.

When Round 3 is completed there probably will be enough salvaged tin cans to make a second shipment to the de-tinning re-plant. A quantity of tin cans remained after the first shipment was made several weeks ago.

Shadow of a Doubt

PRESUMABLY there are men — earnest, capable men—who will read every word of the new 640-page plan to give security to everybody that President Roosevelt has sent to congress.

They will weigh all the pros and cons of the proposals contained in the report and come forth in due time with well considered opinions. This is the way great decisions are arrived at under a system of free speech.

Meanwhile, the rest of us who lack both time and inclination to do all that reading, let alone the background to pass judgment on this super-super-New Deal for one and all, are chiefly interested in one thing only; How does the thing get paid for?

Apparently, there is no answer; at least none is mentioned in the abstracts. This is the glaring weakness of plans in general. They show a disturbing tendency to ignore financial problems, apparently on the assumption that all who insist on paying attention to them are unimaginative. Perhaps so, but ultimately the unimaginative souls are called on to produce the wherewithal in some form or other and are entitled to their doubts. How is security for all of us going to be financed? In Great Britain, the same question is being asked about the Beveridge plan, but that's for the British to figure out. America has a Plan of its own now.

Taxpaying, a Political Issue

INCREDIBLE as it may seem, taxpaying has become a political issue. Republicans in congress are about to use the Rumi plan as a challenge to the administration.

While it is not certain that pay-as-you-go with cancellation of what is already gone will become an official party policy, Republican congressmen plainly intend to lead the fight for its adoption as national policy, with whatever Democratic support they can muster.

Actual experience in the filing of income tax returns and collection of debt due on 1942 income is proving that income tax reform is not optional but imperative. The treasury is not dealing with a theory as the deadline for payments due on 1942 income is reached, but a fact.

The fact is that the income tax collection system is breaking down under the weight of millions of new taxpayers who neither understand nor are willing to take the trouble to understand its complexities. The alternative is to collect income taxes at the source of income, and at the same time to put income taxation on a current basis by wiping out the obligation left over from 1942. The Democrats, by resisting blindly instead of adjusting wisely, have given their opposition in congress a ready-made issue

The Brown Way

THE REASON for expressions of confidence in Prentiss Brown as OPA administrator before he had been tested is beginning now to be plain. Mr. Brown had convinced the officials who were going to be responsible for his policies that he intended to try a departure from his predecessor's style.

What may happen to Mr. Brown eventually is conjectural, but so far he has restored much of the confidence OPA sacrificed to Leon Henderson's take-it-and-like it approach to the job. Perhaps Mr. Brown will make the mistake of being too conciliatory, just as Mr. Henderson made the mistake of being too arbitrary, but meanwhile there is a greatly improved public feeling about the job he is charged with performing.

The further steps that must be taken will be eased by belief that OPA has abandoned the notion of no retreat that finally made things so hot for Mr. Henderson he was forced to resign. That may be Mr. Brown's fate some day, too, but his prospects are infinitely brighter than Mr. Henderson's were at the outset of his experiment He at least acknowledges that in a representative democracy a philosopher's chances are better than the chances of a martinet.

Interested Parties

AMONG the most attentive spectators of the bumbling and bobbling over income tax reform in the treasury department and congress are millions of service men whose post-war welfare is vitally concerned.

Many of them, perhaps a majority, are in debt to their government for income taxes they can not pay out of their service incomes. Theoretically, this debt must be paid when the war is over and their earning power has been restored—unless income tax reform brings about the overdue improvement of shifting income taxation to a completely current basis.

The treasury department knows that after the first World war it never had a chance to clean up its soldier accounts in default The problem after this war will be vastly greater because of the size of the armed forces. While the experts are mulling over the problem they should give due attention to the future welfare and present peace of mind of fighting men who don't expect to come home to a withholding tax or some other plan of current collection plus an unpaid debt incurred when it was still the practice to collect income taxes in the year after the obligation should have been paid off.

News Behind the News

Winant, Beveridge Believed To Have Had Big Hand in New Security Proposal.

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON March 15—Mr. Roosevelt sent his cradle-to-the grave 'security' plan to congress in the name of Uncle Delano Roosevelt, head of the national resources planning board, but it was somewhat the work of Ambassador Winant

The ambassador to London has been in Washington nearly two months working on the program, on the basis of his experience with Sir William Beveridge in preparing the Beveridge plan for the British.

The British government allowed three days of debate in parliament on the Beveridge plan and then postponed action 'until after the war"—a nice shelf on which it can gather dust Not even all laborites were for it.

The American congress is apt to do the same thing with the Roosevelt plan—without the three days of debate.

There are many excellent notions in the plans, but somehow few can bring themselves to seriously consider such political canned goods in the midst of the war. No worse time could be chosen to talk of "security," than when everyone can look into his own life and see there is no such thing, never has been, never will be.

The best laid plans of governments and politicians to collect a lot of taxes now on the promise to pay someone $8, $10, or $12 a week in the future never look sillier than when they come up against war, with inflationary prices, food rationing, death and destruction of lives, and even governments, and their promises to pay.

Security Elusive

The same $8 which might have been security for someone two years ago for instance is certainly not today.

Men have always strived for security, in the past mainly by trying to make themselves rich, or by acquiring property and insurance The rich found in 1932 that their way was no guarantee. Their paper riches were washed away

The poor man has learned the same lesson then and now, when the drawing of war with its price and taxes have nullified his attempts to find assurance against dreaded want.

Yet man—as the politicians well know—first is inclined to seek safety rather than work, advancement, freedom, and adventurous goals, at least in these days when his leaders constantly gild the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow

In truth, however, security is a negative goal It does not look ahead, but back It does not suggest progress and improvement of the individual or nation, only a nerving against an old constantly fading norm

The only real security today is ability to earn, day by day, week by week No matter how governments have dressed it, you still can't get something for nothing.

These government plans at best, could only bring an unsatisfying measure ($8 a week) of "security" to the 10 per cent or less of the people at the expense of the 90 per cent or more of the people who replenish the treasury.

Present Plan

Our own working social security plan, already adopted, has collected $7,000,000,000 more than it has paid out to the people. Comparatively few have benefited. Most good workers will never get anything out of it, and the poor one may not really be worthy of all the taxation

A Britisher tells me that Sir William Beveridge is coming over here to sell this plan, because he failed to put it over in Britain If Beveridge had been successful at home, he would be too busy working it out there to make the trip, so my informant says.

The British, he says, in the past three years have come up against the real facts of life.

However, Beveridge may be more successful here We are more gullible than the British. After all, we took a bite on the wasteful Keynes spending plan, devised by a Britisher, although Britain spurned it.

And all politicians like to pro-

No Atheists in Foxholes

Perils of Conflict Revive Religious Faith.

By JAMES F. WHITE
Associated Press Writer

"WHEN men are living cheek by jowl with death, they get down to essentials."

Navy Chaplain Merritt F. Williams, who was aboard the aircraft carrier Wasp when she went down in the Solomons, might have been speaking for all American fighting men when he said this.

From every part of the world where Americans are facing the realities of war, reports show that they turn for reassurance to religious faith.

Shipwrecked sailors, aviators afloat on rubber rafts, soldiers in slit-trenches and in jungle bivouacs recount how they prayed for deliverance, and sometimes for other things, too.

A navy chaplain with the marines on Guadalcanal reported that a young man who had been arguing for atheism on the way over remarked to him under fire:

"If this keeps up much longer, I'll be thinking your way."

Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker provides the best-known instance of how fighting men think in the shadow of death. He tells it in his vivid account of his experience afloat on a rubber raft in the Pacific after his plane had been forced down.

Capt. Rickenbacker speaks of the disregard that men facing death show toward material things. He tells how they tossed overboard everything in sight to lighten the craft and possibly delay its sinking. Then came a feeling of personal insignificance and helplessness as they drifted for days at the mercy of the sea and a tropic sun.

They held daily religious service, reading this quotation (Matnew 6:31-34) from the New Testament.

"Therefore take no thought, saying, what shall we eat or what shall we drink? or, wherewithal shall we be clothed" . . . For your Heavenly Father knoweth that we have need for all these things, but seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof . . ."

It was after one of these services that a gull landed on Capt. Rickenbacker's head He recalls how he caught it and how he and the men regarded its fishy, stringy meat as a miracle in answer to their prayers.

Pvt. John Bartek (now a sergeant) who also was on the raft said later, "After what happened to us out there, I've decided to become a minister after the war. I feel I'm a true believer." He doesn't know yet what denomination he'll go into It was from his Testament that Rickenbacker read.

RELIGIOUS conviction — reaffirmed or newly found—is reported all the way through the ranks from ordinary privates and seamen up to the gold braid at the top.

A soldier writes from somewhere in the Southern Pacific, "The sustaining influence of the church and the communion with God never meant more to me than now. It seems that when we get far away from home and those we love we think more about God and divine things."

Maj. Gen. George S. Patton, commander of U. S. forces in French Morocco, included in an official army communique: "It is my firm conviction that the great success attending the hazardous operation carried out on sea and on land by the western task force could only have been possible through the intervention of Divine Providence manifested in many ways."

"The chaplain brings the Christian message with an added meaning, because God knows who will come back again, and even the most hardboiled soldier knows there is comfort and strength in his message."

Religious expression among our fighting men appears often to cut across denominational boundaries in its quest for a reassurance that seems common to all faiths Catholics, Protestants and Jews got together on one Pacific island to build an army chapel out of native lumber and coral collected on the spot.

A Navy dive bomber pilot from the Wasp was reading from his G. I. Testament after the ship went down. A Jewish boy near him spoke up:

"What does it say of times like these? Read it to us."

More than one fighting man attributes his deeds to divine guidance. A pilot who got his crew out of his cracked-up bomber under hazardous circumstances later said:

"I know that some power greater than mine guided my every action. I am glad that I was able to do the job but do not want any false glory to be sent my way over it."

An aviation cadet, Clifford Anderson, reported that after he made a blind emergency landing at night, a farmer came running up to him and told him he had missed a house and a windmill by only a few feet.

"I would never have attempted a landing there in daylight—it wasn't humanly possible. I've been asked how I did it, and there's only one answer. The Lord did it for me."

ARMY and navy chaplains agree that the closer the boys move up toward the front the more they think about these things.

"Professions of faith increase the closer we get to the front," says Brig. Gen. William R. Arnold, chief of Army chaplains.

"We noticed an upswing after Pearl Harbor, and more or less expected this to taper off later, but it hasn't."

Navy chaplains say that attendance of services aboard naval units approaching North Africa grew perceptibly just before battle; were even larger after active engagements.

Soldiers at isolated posts are reported walking miles to attend services. Chaplains baptize fighting men on the spot in the nearest creek, river or ocean, if that's the kind of baptism required.

Navy Chaplain W. Wyeth Willard baptized Marine Corp. Arthur S. Tripp in the Lunca river on Guadalcanal along with 17 other leathernecks last December. Tripp's mother, when informed of this, recalled that "he never wanted to go to Sunday school or to church."

An Army chaplain tells how he has ridden with American fliers on jeeps, "racing at breakneck speed," to hear their confessions as they rushed to their planes with the alert howling over the post.

The basis of distribution is one chaplain to about every 1,200 men, but Chaplain Arnold says that smaller isolated units are provided for.

Chaplains are selected clergymen who receive specialized military instructions before going into active service.

They do many jobs which are new to them. But their main assignment is to be there when a soldier or sailor wants the kind of assistance and comfort they represent. There is no compulsion about this so far as the service man is concerned

Lieut. Col. Warren J Clear reports that he slipped into a foxhole during a Jap bombardment. There was a sergeant in the foxhole, and "he prayed almost as loud as I did," says Clear, who spoke to him about it.

"Sir," replied the sergeant, "there are no atheists in foxholes."

Did You Know?

Some Interesting Facts from Washington.

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON, March 15—Did you know that:

If post-war civilian aviation keeps pace with wartime aviation, 200 transatlantic flights every 24 hours won't be a bad guess? No wonder some who have grasped that fundamental fact are perturbed about post-war control of the world airlanes.

That probably more attention is now being given by the armed forces to defense against poisonous gas than at any time since we entered the war? The subject isn't publicly discussed for obvious reasons but long before Pearl Harbor, it was considered a military truism that when Axis victories turned to defeat, they would resort to poison gas to stem the tide.

That in the first two big appropriations bills reported out of committee by the "economy congress," the savings amounted to only, about 2 per cent? "Economy in government" is the political string that candidates for office harp on loudest.

• • •

DID you know that according to the National Aeronautic association, the first regularly scheduled overnight flight has just been inaugurated in Latin America? It's a regular hop from Los Angeles to Mexico City.

That if a resolution introduced by Senator Barkley were voted, President Roosevelt would be given a special medal for his flight to Casablanca? The medal would be in recognition of the President's "contribution in inspiring confidence in aviation as a means of travel."

That one of the so-called "secret weapons" being used effectively by the Army in Africa was on public display some months ago at Churchill Downs?

That dummy guns, like that anti-aircrafter on the roof of the house office building that caused such a congressional furore, are called 'Quakers" in the Army? The nickname is an old one.

• • •

THAT an Army general who is an ace of training in this country says: "If I could give each man only four bullets, I would have him fire three of them in training. The fourth he could shoot at the enemy"? The general wasn't discussing only rifle fire either.

That the government's present "best-seller" is "Victory Garden," the Department of Agriculture booklet? The latest printing order is 2,000,000 copies, and it already was far ahead of "Gone With the Wind."

That the only WAACs who were "drafted" are now being permitted to return to civilian life? The "draft" resulted when women in the air warning service were told they could either join the WAACs or leave the service. Most of them joined. The air warning service is now being returned to civilian operation and WAACs in it are permitted to decide whether they want to stay in or get out of uniform.

This Week in the Sky

(Prepared especially for this page by the Hayden Planetarium of the American Museum of Natural History, New York City.)

* * *

Jupiter, of all the planets and stars, has now long dominated the night sky by its brilliance, not far from the bright star, Pollux, in Gemini, the Twins. On the 12th of this month the giant planet stopped its retrograde movement and since then has been moving eastward among the stars.

When we observe any of the outer planets retrograding, or moving apparently to the west for a while, the explanation is simply that we ourselves are passing these planets at a greater rate of speed, and they, therefore, appear to be going backward. The real motion of the planets is always eastward around the sun.

It can easily be discovered by a little patient observation that those planets which are closer to the sun move more rapidly than those that are farther away from that body. Mars moves much more rapidly against the background of the stars than either Jupiter or Saturn, but of these latter two, Jupiter changes its position much more quickly than Saturn. Mars takes nearly two years to travel once around the sun. Jupiter about 12, and Saturn nearly 30.

Sinus Trouble

Now We Know What You Chronic Sufferers Have Endured While Yours Truly Was Being Lucky.

By DAMON RUNYON

LIFE is a succession of discoveries. Every year a man comes upon some part of his body, the existence and importance of which has been unknown to him the greater part of his life. By the time he is ready to start pushing up the sassafras, he is well informed on all his diverse and sundry organs.

It is to be regretted that he does not become aware of these matters earlier in life. By not imposing upon them, and by taking certain precautions, he might last longer, although I will agree that in many cases this is not altogether desirable. I mean the lasting longer.

Now you take the stomach. The stomach is a recess deep down in the human frame which is more or less mysterious to a man in his early years. All he knows about it is that it is a handy place into which to drop solids of one kind and another and to pour liquids, including those of alcoholic content. But for his stomach he would not know where to throw a lot of things that are of no use to him.

The average man does not really discover his stomach until one day a pain hits him amid-ships and he goes bustling post-haste to a medico and is informed that he has one. This is not infrequently surprising news to many men They are equally surprised when they learn that they also have such items as kidneys, gall bladders and appendixes. I know one elderly gentleman who was so astonished when told by his physician that he had tonsils he called the croaker a liar. He had never heard of 'em before

I THOUGHT I had become aware of practically all the secrets of the human organization and the idiosyncrasies thereof, and in fact considered myself qualified to tell my fellow men just what ailed them, and in the light of my handling of similar situations, just what they ought to do about it. But a couple of weeks ago, I made a brand new discovery. I discovered my sinus.

I understand the term is sometimes plural, to wit, sinuses, but so far I have found only one However, I am quite sure that it is the most prodigious sinus in history in point of pure cussedness, and I am thinking of offering it to the American Medical association as a most unique exhibit. As my readers are aware, I am not much of a hand for boasting, yet I am willing to wager that my one sinus can out-slug any pair in existence

I remember hearing persons of my acquaintance remark that their sinus was bothering them, but not knowing what sinus meant, I thought they were referring to individuals, possibly relatives. Now that I know what sinus is, I can appreciate the peculiar qualities of my own because bother is a mild word to describe what it is doing to me The magnitude of my personal sinus is such as to make me feel downright proud.

THE only drawback is, it is something that cannot be seen, like sciatica. You cannot walk up to a fellow citizen and say, "Look at my sinus," because it is invisible to the naked eye. It isn't something that you can hopefully display to a draft official.

The sinus is a small pocket in the noggin, as I understand it, which conceals a black-hearted little imp with a trip-hammer with which he keeps belting the skull, sometimes defying the keenest of medical exploration, Yet being invisible, as I say, he does not elicit from beholders sympathetic cluckings to which a sufferer from pain is ordinarily entitled.

I think a broken leg is much better. Then you do not have to explain why you are slightly peevish at times. But still and all, I have the satisfaction of knowing that no man can ever again tell me what a fine sinus he has, because mine is the finest in the world. It is really a lily.

So They Say

The whole objective of the manpower program is to have the right workers in the right war jobs at the right time. It is not helping your government reach that objective if you leave a job which is useful to the war to find a place doing something for which you have no skill.—Manpower Director Paul V. McNutt

We astronomers are so readily in cooperation whenever any tough problem comes along that we wonder why all the children of the other waves, whatever their national affiliation, cannot overlook the trivialities and rise to the dignity of a world-wide manhood.—Dr. Harlow Shapley of Harvard observatory

We must never underestimate the fighting ability of the enemy, as a foe or as an individual. But in my short experience with the Japs out there (Guadalcanal) I found nothing to build up a bogy as to invincibility.—Maj. Gen. Alexander A. Vandegrift.

The vast American educational system has set men free—free not alone to serve, but free also to lead. Education is the mother of leadership. We must establish beyond any doubt the equality of men.—Wendell Willkie.

AT A UNITED STATES HEAVY BOMBER BASE SOMEWHERE IN INDIA—The morale at this United States heavy bomber base is so high that the men fight for a chance to go on combat missions, says Captain William B. Hood, 45-year-old chaplain from Charlotte, N. C.

"They would rather miss a meal than miss a mission." Hood declares. "If their name is not in the list of those assigned to go out, they beg me to go to bat for them."

Hood says the commanding officers here found it necessary to lay down rules against the men accompanying the missions without definite orders. Medical officers have doubled physical checkups because many fliers neglected to report ailments that would prevent them from getting another crack at the Japanese.

Hood probably knows more about the young Americans out here than any one else. They talk to him freely about everything.

Chiefly responsible for the high morale, he says, are excellent food, regular mail from home, and high caliber officers.

The chaplain rarely misses a chance to say a few words to the men before they take off on missions. He also has a habit of writing a line of Scripture on the bombs.

The line is always the same:

"Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Why should I buy War Bonds?

Some answers to a question every one of us should ask

1. The Government has figured out that, to pay for the planes, tanks, ships, and other tools of victory we need, you and everybody else should put at least 10 percent of his pay into War Bonds.

That's the main reason for putting at least a dime from every dollar into War Bonds. But here are some others:

2. Every $3 you invest in War Bonds will return you $4 in 10 years. Simply from a cold-blooded financial viewpoint, no more surely profitable investment was ever offered to anybody, anywhere.

3. The United States Treasury is the world's safest place to put your money. War Bonds are just like money in the bank. They earn more money for you. A War Bond is a "promise to pay" backed by the world's strongest Government.

4. Suppose you lose the Bonds. Suppose they're stolen, or burned. You do NOT lose your money. Every Bond you buy is registered in your name at the Treasury Department. NOTHING can prevent you getting your money back—with interest.

5. Your War Bond money will help keep prices down! There are already fewer things to buy. And, as the President said, "If people with plenty of cash start bidding against each other for scarce goods, the price goes UP!" Put your money in War Bonds—and help keep prices down!

6. Some day this war will be over! Then—there will be plenty of the things you want to buy. Your money will go farther. And if you've bought War Bonds, you'll have the money to get more of all the things you can't buy today!

7. The best way to buy Bonds? Through the Payroll Savings Plan! It's a safe, sure, automatic way to make you save regularly—to help you accumulate the money for a comfortable, independent old age, for putting a child through college, for traveling, for buying a home or a farm.

8. If you are already putting 10 percent of your pay into War Bonds, through the Payroll Savings Plan, boost that 10 percent if you possibly can. If you're working in a place where the Plan is installed, but haven't signed up yet, do so tomorrow!

9. If you're working in a plant where the Plan has not been installed, talk to your employer and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will help. If, for any reason, you're unable to get on a Payroll Savings Plan, the bank will help you start one of your own.

10. The time is NOW! The President has said: "Lost ground can always be regained. Lost time—never!" Your Government needs the money for ships and planes and guns—now! See your employer today and tell him you want 10 percent or more put into War Bonds every pay day.

5 REASONS WHY

1. By investing in War Bonds you help provide the planes, the tanks, the guns, and the ships we must have to survive and conquer.

2. You prove that you are a patriotic American.

3. You aid the morale of our fighting men by showing them that the entire Nation is behind them.

4. You prove to our enemies that we are a United People.

5. You protect your own financial future, as every $18.75 you invest in a War Bond brings you back $25 in 10 years. You make the world's safest investment by buying a share in the world's most powerful country.

Harding To Play Newark in District Finals Tonight

Prexies Stop Delaware 42-38 To Go Into Finals.

By LOREN W. TIBBALS
Marion Star Sports Editor

Tonight, for the seventh time since 1924, Marion Harding will seek the championship of the Central district Class A basketball tournament, stepping stone to one of the 16 berths in the regionals and then the all-important state tournament.

By beating Delaware Willis, 42-38, in the finals of the lower bracket of the tourney Saturday night the Presidents won the right to oppose Newark in the championship affair. Earlier in the evening Newark eked out a 43-42 win over an exceedingly strong Columbus Central team.

Highlighting Harding's win was lanky Dick Mulvaine, who poured in 26 points to hike his tournament total for three games to 72, or only two short of the four-game record of 74 set in 1941 by Walter "Bruff" McQuade of Columbus Aquinas. Mulvaine shattered the tourney's one-game individual record of 24 points, owned by Newark's Dee Snelling, by ramming in 38 against Grandview in a quarter-final event.

With Mulvaine getting 26 of their total of 42 it is evident the other Prexies failed to cash in heavily. Frank Louck, who is doing an outstanding job of substituting for all-N. C. O. guard Dick Cleary, pumped in 10 points, including a quartet of fielders and a brace of free throws.

Stu Young collected one goal and a pair of free throws and Tom Hurst got one fielder to account for the remaining Marion points.

Stars on Defense

On the other side of the ledger—the defensive—Hurst really rates a pair of pats on the back. In the first period, especially, Hurst sparkled as the Presidents rolled up a 7-1 advantage. In this same department every one of the Prexy starters—Mulvaine, Young, big Charlie Fazio, Hurst and Louck—deserve plenty of applause.

Unlike previous tournament games of the Hardings, fundamentals appeared to be the biggest fault. Against Columbus North and Grandview Harding was practically flawless on basic basketball but, Saturday a minor case of jitters developed and the result was a close ball game.

Earlier in the year Harding trounced the Willis High school team by a score of 127-24. This game, the opener for both teams, was played by Harding with almost no preparation. Inability to work out a gym schedule saw the Prexies move into the opener with only four days of practice under their belts. On the other hand Coach Carl Hopkins had worked with the Senators for nearly two months.

From old followers of Delaware club we were informed Saturday night that the present Willis team compares favorably with the pre-World War I teams of 1913 and 1915 which brought the state crown to Delaware High.

From this writer's observation, Delaware's successes resulted from the use of two different teams of almost equal strength. Neither, by itself, could produce the desired results, but combined they produced three startling tournament victories, including the upset of Bexley, a pre-tourney favorite.

Have Star Team

Fans who have seen tournament games so far long since agreed that Newark is the team to beat in the tournament. Boasting a regular season record of 18 wins and two losses, both to Dover in Central Ohio league play, Newark headed into the district affair with another speedy and aggressive club similar in many ways to the state championship teams of 1936 and 1938. This year's edition, like the title teams, possesses a number of good shots from the field and forward and center, both over six foot, to control action under the backboards.

In Fred Schaus the Wildcats have a strong all-Ohio contender. For tonight's affair he will likely be ordered to operate in close along with Campbell, regular center. Jackie Bickle, ace Wildcat footballer and a mighty valuable man to have on your side in a basketball game, will handle one of the guard spots. Sedgewick, who reminds one of Harding's Fred Dunlap of a couple of years ago, will be at the other guard spot. Coach Max Douglas indicated he would start either Jackson or Bline at the other forward slot.

In a quarter-final game a week ago Newark put on a scoring show which likely will never be repeated in district competition. Bickle counted 18 points in the first half and from all appearances as headed for a new record. However, in the second half, conscious of his position, Bickle failed to make even easy dribble-in attempts. Meanwhile, Schaus crept up and at the start of the final period wrote the new record into the books. The ink was hardly dry when Mulvaine scratched it with the amazing total of 38.

Tonight's Game at 10:15

Coach Douglas, who is rounding out his first year as head coach of the Newark team, deserves no small bit of appraisal for the team which he has developed from reserve strength from last year's district runner-up. Douglas started the season without a letterman and with only meager resources from which to develop a winner.

Tonight's game will start at approximately 9:15 Columbus time, or 10:15 Marion time. It will be preceded by a consolation game between Columbus Central and Delaware Willis.

A Harding win tonight will send the Prexies against Middletown at 1:30 p. m. next Saturday in the regional tournament at Dayton. Xenia Central, last year's state "A" champ, will play Cincinnati Elder at 2:30. The victors of the two games will play in the regional finals Saturday night. The winner will play in the state finals the following Saturday in Columbus.

LaRue, Edison and Marysville Lose in Class B

Marion Area Cage Teams Eliminated in Semi-Final Play.

LaRue, Edison and Marysville, Marion area teams in the Central district Class B tournament, were defeated in semi-final games played Saturday afternoon on the Otterbein college floor at Westerville.

In final games Saturday night Berlin snapped Plain City's 21-game win streak, in a 39-29 conquest and Utica exploded Pickaway Township's 19-game string in a 41-30 triumph for its twenty-second straight.

LaRue, champion of the Marion county league, dropped a 33-23 decision to a remarkable Plain City team in which twin brothers, Dick and Boo Fee, scored 16 points apiece. Boo Jones and Clair Oberdier, LaRue's two all-county players sparked the Marion county team's offensive with nine and eight points, respectively.

Take Early Lead

In the first three minutes of the game Plain City scored four points while holding LaRue scoreless. Making a free throw, Jones broke the scoring ice for LaRue and Oberdier looped in a one hand attempt after Dick Fee tallied on a close range shot. Late in the period Oberdier connected on another one hander. The quarter ended with Plain City leading 12-5.

With everyone of the starters scoring in the second period LaRue rallied to within two points of the pace-setters and then late in the period fell behind 23-18. Millisor paced the second period attack for LaRue with six points. Bob Fee, Plain City's all-tourney performer, chalked up two points for LaRue on an unusual play during this period. Fee, a long, lean player, jumped high to grab a rebound from the LaRue backboard and in doing so struck the ball with his fingers, upping it in. John Ridgeway, captain of the LaRue team, automatically received credit for the bread basket.

Again in the third period LaRue battled back to within two points, 24-26, and thus time the period ended with Plain City leading by only four points, 30-26. However, in the fourth canto Plain City unloosened its scoring stars, the Fee brothers and piled up a 13-7 scoring advantage.

Record of 14 Wins

The loss gave LaRue a record of three losses in 17 games during the season. Green Camp twice defeated LaRue in non-Marion county league games during the regular season.

Edison ended its season with a record of 14 wins in 16 games after losing to Berlin, eventual tourney co-winner, by a score of 46-31. Davenport and McNamara scored 17 and 16 points, respectively, to lead the winners. Jefferies paced Edison with nine points.

In another of the afternoon semi-final events, Utica topped Alexandria, 28-25 and Marysville boxed out, 43-34, to Pickaway Township.

17 ON HOLDOUT LIST AS MAJOR LEAGUERS COMMENCE TRAINING

Yanks with Four on Outside Head List; Indians, Reds Each Have One.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 15—Major league baseball officially opens its spring training season today with at least 17 members of its sparse roster classified as holdouts.

The New York Yankees set the pace with four unsigned batterymen even though Pitcher Ernie Bonham said the terms offered were agreeable. He didn't initial the contract, however.

Ten of the 16 American and National league clubs start their seasonal grind today. A player automatically becomes a holdout when his club begins its drills and his name isn't on a pact.

Catcher Bill Dickey and Pitchers Atley Donald, and Spud Chandler are on the outside along with Bonham.

The St. Louis Cardinals unpack their bags in Cairo, Ill., with only Harry Walker, reserve outfielder, unsigned.

Walker's brother, Dixie of the Brooklyn Dodgers, also has intimated that he may not play this summer. In addition, the Dodgers have three full-fledged holdouts in pitchers Rube Melton and Buck Newsom and Catcher Mickey Owen.

The St. Louis Browns have no holdouts while the Cleveland Indians have only Jeff Heath, outfielder, outside the fold.

The New York Giants were unable to sign veteran Dick Bartell before the practices got under way. In addition, first baseman Johnny Mize and Catcher Hank Danning remained at their homes awaiting induction orders.

Jerry Priddy and Mickey Vernon, third baseman and first sacker, are squabbling over their salaries with the Washington Senators.

Catcher Dixie Parsons is at odds with the Detroit Tigers and Gerald Walker, an outfielder, objects to the cut given his pay by the Cincinnati Reds.

The Phils have two definite holdouts in Pitcher Johnny Allen and First Baseman Eddie Murphy and have no word from Ed Levy, another first sacker.

Virtually all the six remaining clubs list some dissatisfied players but they can not be termed holdouts.

Week-End Sports in Brief

By The Associated Press

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — Alan Ford, Yale freshman, equalled national inter-collegiate record of 22.9 seconds for 50-yard free style swim in duel with Harvard.

KANSAS CITY—Cape Girardeau, Mo., Teachers defeated Maryville, Mo. Teachers, 34 to 32, for national inter-collegiate basketball crown, won last year by Hamline university of St. Paul, Minn.

NEW YORK—Frank Dixon won mile in 4:09.6 and Greg Rice took two mile in 8:52.7 in annual Knights of Columbus games. Bill Vessie of Columbia won high jump at 6 feet, 8 inches for tenth straight victory.

EARL SMITH DIES

By The Associated Press

PORTSMOUTH, O., March 15—Earl Smith, former American league and American association outfielder is dead. Smith played with the Washington Senators, the St. Louis Browns of the American league and Columbus and Minneapolis of the association. He had been working at a war plant at nearby South Point the past year.

Barney Ross Up Another Notch in Esteem of Writers

Modesty About Prowess on Guadalcanal Makes Them Like Him More.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 15—Corp. Barney Ross came home last night to his own "mob," the fight writers.

After weeks of public appearances he sat down with his old pals at a small private party the boxing writers gave him.

And in the simple, easy way that made him the "sports writers' fighter," the one-time world welterweight and lightweight champion admitted to the boys that he shouldn't have been singled out for a hero's role from the Marine action on Guadalcanal.

There was some argument about this. The writers pointed out that he had killed 22 Japs one night last November while standing by and protecting three wounded Marine buddies.

"Yes," he explaine, "but I feel so insignificant, because I'm only one of the many thousands who have done as much—in fact, most of them have done a whole lot more than I have. But I was lucky. And I'll never forget that the Lord had His arms around my neck and kept them there all the time I was in action."

The only formality about the party was a presentation to Ross by publisher Nat Fleischer, of the Ring Magazine merit award for 1942. This, along with the Edward J. Neil memorial trophy the Boxing Writers association presented him previously, just about clinched the little corporal's rating as "boxing's man of the year."

OXFORD TEAM EDGED

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, March 15—Michigan Normal won the college division of the Illinois Tech relays, getting 39 points to edge Miami university of Oxford, O., with 32. Harrison Dillard, representing Baldwin Wallace which placed sixth, matched the relay record of :06.0 or the 70-yard high hurdles.

KENT STATE LOOMS AS TEAM TO BEAT IN CLASS B EVENTS

Squad That Won Only 7 of 22 Games Before Tourney Now in Spotlight.

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, O., March 15 — The team with the poorest record loomed today as the most feared of the 16 Class B entrants in Saturday's Ohio high school regional basketball tournaments.

The "team to beat" tag was hung on Kent State's all-senior squad, which had won only seven of 22 games before hitting the district meet at Kent, and despite the fact three unbeaten clubs and a flock of other good-record teams are among the regional qualifiers.

Kent State is the only one of the 16 Class B finalists ever to win the state championship. It turned the trick in 1927.

The result—Kent State 40, Clearview 35.

Next came Champion, with a 20-game winning streak, as Kent's foe, with a regional qualifying spot hanging in the balance.

The result—Kent State 39 Champion 33.

The answer to the poor pre-tournament record is that Kent played in the Metropolitan league, as its only Class B member, and the competition against the big, tough Class A squads may have built the boys up to the spot where "B" opponents look easy.

24 Straight Wins

Middle Point of Van Wert county, with 24 straight conquests, carries the No. 1 record into the Class B regionals, followed by Webster Township of Wood county, and Utica with 22 each.

In Class A the unbeaten contingent is Martins Ferry 22, Defiance 21, and Greenfield McClain 17. Plain City's winning streak of 27 was ended in the Cenral District finals by little Berlin of Delaware county, 30-29, and Pickaway township's 19-game stretch was halted by Utica, 41-30, as the latter remained undefeated in 22 starts. Greenfield McClain had the most narrow escape, needing two overtime periods to defeat Chillicothe.

Six former Class A state champs bowed out in the district finals but five others—Newark (1936 and 1938), Dover (1927 and 1933), Martins Ferry (1941), Akron West (1932), and the defending Xenia Centrals—remained in the running. Ousted were: Delaware (1913 and 1915), New Philadelphia (1940), Akron North (1935 and 1939), Marietta (1914), Portsmouth (1931), and Plain City (1911).

Harding Game Tonight

One game remains in district play, Marion Harding and Newark meet Monday to determine the central area's qualifier for the Dayton regional.

Class A regionals are scheduled Saturday at Kent, Zanesville, Bowling Green and Dayton, with Class B regionals at Kent, Bowling Green, Athens and Springfield. Four teams will compete in each, one surviving from each tournament to compete in the state finals here March 27. The Kent and Zanesville jousts will start Friday.

Here's the regional lineup, with the won-lost records of the qualifiers:

CLASS A

At Bowling Green: Port Clinton 15-3, vs Defiance 21-0; Toledo Woodward 14-3, vs Lima Central 15-5.

At Zanesville: Greenfield 17-0, Dover 14-5, Martins Ferry 22-0, and Akron Kenmore 14-6.

At Kent: Canton McKinley 18-2, vs Akron West 14-5; Canton Lehman 18-3, vs East Cleveland Shaw 13-4.

At Dayton: Xenia Central (defending champion) 15-2, vs Cincinnati Elder 10-5; Middletown 14-3, vs either Newark 21-2, or Marion Harding 16-2.

CLASS B

At Bowling Green—Webster Township 22-0, vs Middle Point 24-0; Pettisville 19-1, vs Wharton 18-3.

At Springfield: Berlin 18-3, vs Plainville 16-5; Tipp City 15-3, vs Centerville 9-3.

At Kent: Bolivar 10-9, vs Kent State 10-15; Waynesburg 23-2, vs Hartville 16-2.

At Athens: Utica 22-0, Rome 19-5, Yorkville 28-6, and Corning.

Xenia Central's Class A champs are the only team making a third straight trip to the select 16, but Akron Kenmore, Greenfield and Canton Lehman in Class A, and Yorkville, Webster Township Tipp City and Waynesburg are in the Class B finals for the second straight year.

On the very next play Mulvaine drew a pair of free throws and made both to put Harding out in front. Although Willis tied the count at 7-7 late in the closing stanza and 12-12 in the first three minutes of the second period the Delaware team never took a lead the remainder of the way. Mackin the first of two charity attempts Stu Young gave Harding a 3-1 lead. Frankie Louck missed a charity throw and Young followed up with a fielder. Louck added a pair of free throws and Cowell retaliated for the Senators Golding and Bills each popped fielders, tieing the game at 7-7. Mulvaine looped in an overhead attempt just before the quarter ended to push Harding back into the lead.

Take 23-15 Lead

The second quarter saw Harding take a 23-15 lead as Mulvaine poured in 10 points and Louck added two fielders. Delaware maintained its pace by garnering three field goals and a pair of charities.

Both teams scored 15 points in the third quarter with Mulvaine dumping in 10 more and Hurst and Louck each scoring fielders and Young adding a free throw. With even Mulvaine unable to hit the hoop in the final period Willis held Harding at bay to run up an 8-4 scoring advantage, one of the two departments in which the Senators led.

Harding's winning advantage proved to be from the foul line, where they scored a 12-6 advantage. Willis piled up a 16-15 lead in the field goal department.

HULL IN ACCORD WITH EDEN VIEW

Secretary Calls for Quick Action; Sees Long War.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 15 — Secretary of State Hull, after an hour conference today with Anthony Eden, said he was entirely in accord with the British foreign secretary's warning of last Saturday that the American and British public must not reach hasty conclusions about the duration of the war.

The conflict will be more long drawn-out—according to all reasonable calculations—than one might expect on the basis of a hasty judgment, Hull told a press conference.

Accompanied by the British ambassador, Lord Halifax, Eden went to the state department directly from a conference with Vice President Wallace. The British foreign secretary was noncommittal on the Wallace conference. In reply to newsmen's questions he said merely he was afraid he had nothing on that subject.

He planned to have lunch with Secretary Knox at the Navy department and to confer this afternoon with Sir Arthur Salter, head of the British shipping mission here. Tomorrow Eden expects to confer with Undersecretary of State Welles, and hopes before the end of the week to have an opportunity of meeting all cabinet members with whom he has not already conferred. He saw both Knox and Secretary Stimson Sunday.

Eden was a dinner guest of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House last night and stayed on to see a movie depicting the British 8th Army's victory over the axis armies in battling all the way from Egypt to Tripoli.

High School, College Coaches To Convene

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 15—A flock of Ohio's competitive and coaching talent will descend on the state capital March 27.

The headline attraction is the state high school basketball championship tournament to determine the Class A and Class B kings, but the Ohio Conference Managers association, made up of the coaches and athletic directors of the 19-college loop, will hold its spring meeting the same day as will the Ohio Association of Track Coaches, composed of mentors from both the college and high school fields.

The two associations have their conferences scheduled in the morning, clearing the way for their attendance at the basketball tourney.

The Ohio conference group will consider a proposal to permit transfer students to play on varsity teams without putting in a year of residence as now demanded. Freshman are now permitted to play on the varsity squads without observing the residence rule.

GALION—Services were held this afternoon for the infant daughter of Loren and Lucille (Sherer) Sipes, at the Volk funeral home. The baby was one of twins, born Sunday at City hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Sipes. The other twin, a boy, survives. Burial was made in Fairview cemetery.

CO. H. SESSION TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Preparing for Federal Inspection Tuesday.

The final school session of Co. H, Ohio State Guard, before federal inspection will be held tonight at the armery. Because of the drafting of four members into the Army, two recruits are needed to bring the company's membership up to a full strength of 50 for inspection by Major George E. Biggs of the Fifth Service Command at Ft. Hayes Tuesday night. The members drafted last week were Mess Sgt. Charles W. Dixon, Pfc. Walter E. Johnson, Pfc. Donald W. Philhams and Pvt. Carroll R. McKinnis.

Major Biggs will arrive at the armory at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon to inspect the records and supplies of the company. Present will be Capt. Carl F. Ebert, Supply Sgt. Kermit Q. Taylor, First Sgt. Carl F. Pollock and Cpl. Charles Sheater, company clerk.

The inspection Tuesday night will begin at 7:30 and anyone interested in watching are welcome to attend. Following inspection of the men and their equipment there will be close order drill of the company, the platoons and the squads. Major Biggs will also inspect the state of training of the men in first aid, interior guard duty, extended order, security and protection of individuals and small units, individual combat tactics, map reading, signaling and special operations.

Methodist Group Hears Talk by Judge Gast

Judge Oscar Gast was a guest speaker at a meeting of the W. S. C. S. of Epworth Methodist church Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. W. E. Miley, presided. Mrs. S. M. Ingmire conducted devotions. She told of the work of the Home missionary society at the internment camps in the United States and said it was a challenge to the women in this country to help the children of the war torn countries who so greatly need the necessities of life. Mrs. Richard Jennings, accompanied by Mrs. Gladys Clark Arler, sang a solo.

Judge Gast discussed "Child Labor Safeguards in War Time," and spoke on bills pending in the state legislature regarding working hours for women and children. He also spoke on child delinquency which he said, is increasing, and urged that parents be more watchful of their children. He cited a number of instances of delinquency. The program closed with prayer by Mrs. L. S. Iley and later there was a social hour and tea.

AUTO TAG OFFICE OPEN EXTRA HOURS

The office of the deputy registrar, bureau of motor vehicles will be open Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday nights from 7 to 9 o'clock for the accommodation of shop workers and others whose hours of employment will not permit their registering for auto tags during the daytime hours, James E. Messenger, deputy registrar, announced today. Regular hours are from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. and the office will be open during the noon hour Mr. Messenger states.

To date the passenger cars for which stickers have been purchased totals 1,600 the records show. Mr. Messenger is asking persons who have not yet purchased their stickers to do so at the earliest possible date to avoid a last minute rush and congestion.

Deadline for purchasing the 1943 stickers is April 1, a little more than two weeks. Purchasers of stickers are to retain their 1942 license plates and place the sticker on the windshield. Applicants are asked to remember they must present their 1942 registration card together with title to the car.

SIX TRAFFIC ARRESTS IN AREA OVER WEEK-END

Three In Court On Charges of Using Outdated Licenses.

A minor accident at Marysville was investigated and six arrests for traffic violations were made over the week-end by the state highway patrol.

Saturday midnight cars driven by Eber Henson of near Marysville and Robert Scott of near Delaware collided on the Mill Creek bridge three miles east of Marysville on Route 36. According to the patrol report no one was injured and damage to the cars was slight.

Three motorists, driving cars with 1942 Indiana license plates which expired Feb. 28, were among the traffic arrests. The patrol report listed the disposition of the cases as follows: Manuel Gonzales, now living in Galion, fined $10 and costs in mayor's court at Galion. Jack Norman of South Bend, Ind., arrested on Route 30-N, fined $10 and costs in justice court at Upper Sandusky; Chester Marler, now living in Springfield, arrested near Marion, posted $10 bond for appearance in Marion municipal court.

The other three arrests were for speeding and were reported by the patrol as follows:

Arthur E. Pfahl of 303 Chicago avenue, arrested Saturday night on Route 23, fined $10 and costs in mayor's court at Delaware; James Hepner of Highland Park, Mich., arrested Saturday night on Route 23 north of Marion, posted $25 bond for appearance this afternoon in Marion municipal court; Edith Opal Cuthbert of Columbus, arrested Saturday afternoon on Route 42, fined $15 and costs in mayor's court at Delaware.

DAY NURSERY SURVEY CARDS BEING STUDIED

Tabulation of Results Started by Women's Group.

Work of checking the cards in the citywide canvass being made to determine Marion residents' views on whether there is a need of established day care for children was begun today by the Marion Federation of the Child Conservation League and Parent-Teacher association groups, in rooms on the second floor of the Citizens' building.

The survey is being conducted by block leaders, a Civilian defense organization unit, of which Roy Waddell is chairman, under the sponsorship of the day nursery committee, headed by Mrs. J. Malcolm Strelitz. The survey followed a meeting of the block leaders to receive their instructions and cards early in the month.

The survey is being conducted to give parents, contacted in the house to house canvass, an opportunity to express their opinions on whether Marion needs a day care for children of working mothers, and if so, just what type of care would be preferred. Approximately half of the cards have been returned and it is expected that the remainder will be turned in early this week.

Mormon Bishop Attends Marion Church Meeting

The life and writings of James Whitcomb Riley was the subject of a "fireside chat" meeting of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Sutton at 180 Franconia avenue Sunday night. Miss Martha Jenkins reviewed Riley's life and Miss Jean Swartz read several of his poems. A talk on Mormonism and current movements in the church in Utah was given by Bishop Ray Davis of Provo, Utah, father of Elder Clyde Davis of the local church, who was in Marion over the week-end. G. R. Perry of Galion spoke briefly. Mr. and Mrs. Perry will leave this week to make their home in Salt Lake City. An informal discussion was held on questions of theology. Elder Davis was in charge of the meeting.

Work of Girl Scout Leaders Seen As Contribution to Nation's War Effort

"As a Girl Scout leader, I know the fun and satisfaction that Girl Scout leadership offers any woman, and I feel that through this leadership I am making a definite contribution toward winning the war. This is my hobby as it was (and will be) my hobby in peace time," said Miss Esther Eggleston, leader of Girl Scout troop 20 and [illegible] Girl Scout Leaders association in Marion, in a statement issued today in connection with the Girl Scout membership and adult leader drive now under way.

Miss Eggleston is a teacher in the Pearl Street school and is active in church and club work as well as in Girl Scouting. The fact that her troop grew so large last year that it had to be subdivided into two troops this year proves that she and her girls enjoy their Scouting experiences.

"I would like to tell you the story of 10-year-old Twila Smith. Twila came to me in the fall of 1941 as a Tenderfoot Girl Scout. She was a little too young for the Army but suggested that she join the Girls Scouts instead. Twila's group had a troop with [illegible] members. Twila is doing so well, job wise, in a factory that makes the most of her age and experience.

"Twila Smith was there because there was a leader willing to make a place for her. If we are to make Girl Scouting available to a million or more by February 12, there must be leaders willing to take all the girls who come.

"Women who are eager to do something for their country can perform a real war service by volunteering to lead Girl Scout troops. The Girl Scouts provide training courses and expert help. Girl Scout leaders have been recommended by the Office of Civilian Defense for the much sought V insignia of the Citizens Service Corps."

The Marion Girl Scout office at Room 15, Citizens Building is open from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. to receive the application of women who wish to volunteer for troop leadership or other Scout work. Six women have contacted the Girl Scout office since the drive began Thursday, expressing their interest in the work and willingness to become leaders.

9 TRAFFIC ARRESTS HERE OVER WEEK-END

Nine arrests for traffic violations were made by city police over the week-end including five for speeding.

Floyd Russell Stumbo, 26 of 616 Wilson avenue was arrested on a charge of speeding, 45 miles an hour on West Center street at 5 a. m. today. He posted $25 bonds and when arraigned in municipal court pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

Walter Hood, 40, of 615 Lee street was arrested at 1:53 a. m. today on West Center street on a charge of speeding 40 miles an hour. He pleaded not guilty and was released under $25 bond to appear at 9 a. m. Wednesday.

Ralph Clarence Sipe, 27, of 392 Herman street, charged with operating a motor vehicle without lights, was given a suspended fine of $10 and costs when he told Municipal Judge W. Dexter Hazen that he was driving with his parking lights to help charge his battery. He was arrested by police at 12:14 a. m. today on West Columbia street.

Jacob Lee Withers, 22, of 433 Pearl street was arrested by city police at 11:05 a. m. Sunday on West Center street on a charge of permitting an unlicensed operator to drive his auto. The unlicensed operator, Charles Robert McComas, 22, of 306 Patten street, was charged with operating a vehicle without a driver's license and was fined $10 and costs. Withers was given a suspended fine of $10 and costs.

Robert James Vaughn, 25, of 400 Evans road was arrested at 11:15 a. m. Saturday on Davids street on a charge of speeding 50 miles an hour. Arraigned in municipal court Saturday he was found not guilty.

D. M. Augenstein of Waldo, arrested on a speeding charge on Davids street on Saturday, also was found not guilty.

BROADCAST TONIGHT

The radio broadcast of the Christian Holiness Tabernacle at 707 Bennett street will be heard tonight over station WMRN at 8:30 instead of tomorrow night because of a special broadcast set for that time. Rev. J. Howard Berridge, the pastor, announced the program will continue on succeeding Tuesday nights. The broadcasts are made from the tabernacle platform and services are open to the public.

RED CROSS SAFETY COURSE SCHEDULED

Home and Farm Accident Prevention Classes Set.

The Marion County Red Cross chapter today began preparations for an instructors' course in home and farm accident prevention which will be given next Monday through Friday by T. C. McDaniel Jr., national Red Cross representative.

Those eligible for the course are first aid instructors, members of safety committees of service organizations, teachers, farm group leaders and others with a background of leadership. Applicants must be at least 20 years of age. No preliminary training in accident prevention is necessary.

The 15-hour course will be taught in three-hour classes in the front room of the Marion Business college on the third floor at 133½ West Center street. Classes will start at 8.

Taking into account the high percentage of deaths and injuries in the home and on the farm, the Red Cross throughout the nation is taking steps to curtail the threat to the nation's man power.

Red Cross figures show that although accidents in industry have been reduced 50 per cent in the last 25 years, 32,000 workers died in 1941 in accidents while off the job. Most of the fatalities occurred in the home. In the occupational accidents, farm work took the highest toll.

GALION—A daughter was born Saturday at City hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harden of Galion. Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Smith of Route 1, Mt. Gilead, are the parents of a son, born Sunday at City hospital.

CORN PARITY PRICE EFFECTS STUDIED

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, March 15—A good deal of doubt exists in grain trade circles that raising corn ceilings to parity levels, as contemplated by the office of price administration, would cause any sharp increase in marketing of that grain.

These sources explained that setting a corn ceiling of $1.08 a bushel, Chicago basis, which is considered to be around parity, is not likely to encourage shipments when farmers can earn approximately $1.50 a bushel by feeding corn to hogs.

It was pointed out also that ceilings between various markets reportedly are to be arbitrary percentages below the Chicago base price, and some fear was expressed corn would go to the markets with the highest prices. This would leave a scarcity in other centers. In that respect, it was said, the corn situation might resemble what has happened in other foods when they were placed under ceilings.

The demand for corn from industrial users and feed producers continues strong, with the feed manufacturers particularly not being able to obtain all they want.

Corn was bid at ceilings throughout the week, with no change in the tight situation, created by inability of elevators to remove hedges in the futures market. Consequently, they were not able to offer much of the grain for sale in the cash trade.

Corn proved the exception, as all other grains were considerably weaker. Wheat prices slumped to the lowest levels in about two weeks on selling attributed partly to hedging from the southwest.

mote "security" because it makes them appear to be doing something for the common man and thus covers a multitude of sins—including currently the insecurity of rising price levels which is destroying whatever security citizens have been able to provide for themselves, in insurance or otherwise.

"Politically Canned Goods"

The current report is thus merely political canned goods laid out on the shelf in congress, with no guarantees against spoilage. It is a mass of elevating theories strung together without any concrete plan or drafts or specifications for carrying them out.

While the social security board is supposed to be working on some dollar and cents recommendations these will be a long time coming, and the congressional committees are far too busy with other matters to consider any of the ideas this year, or perhaps next.

For the purposes of the political campaign next year, however, the politicos can interest the voters in pointing to the labels on the cans—without inviting too close a look inside.

Atlantic Ship Losses Now Reported at 626

By The Associated Press

With the five merchant ships officially announced last week The Associated Press tabulation of allied and neutral nations cargo ships officially announced as sunk by the axis in the western Atlantic since Pearl Harbor totalled 626.

Twenty-four seamen were reported killed, one missing and 296 rescued in the five sinkings.

REPORT GOERING IN ROME

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 15 — The Russian news agency Tass said in a dispatch from Geneva received today by the OWI that Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering, who has been reported in Rome, was trying "to bring permanent pressure to bear upon Mussolini at the present critical stage of Italo-German relations." Tass said Goering "is charged with a personal mission from Hitler to Mussolini and, according to rumors, will stay in Rome a long time."

PENNY IMPORTANT

TWIN FALLS, IDA.—A trip to the hospital to remove a penny she had swallowed and the attendance of physicians with a fluoroscope and a diet of ice cream and cotton, didn't bother the three-year-old daughter of Harold L. Lackey of Twin Falls. "When do I get my penny back?" was all she wanted to know.

Objectors Accused of Blackout Violation

CLEVELAND, March 15—Two conscientious objectors assigned as orderlies at the Cleveland state hospital were charged today with violating the city's blackout ordinance.

Accused in a warrant sworn to by Lesie Mugford, chief air raid warden, were Louis Lock, 23, of Marinette, Wis., and Bolton Davidheiser, 25, of Columbus, O.

Dr. H. P. Lee, hospital superintendent, said Lock waved a flashlight at a hospital window during the March 4 blackout to "show the world the light," and declared Davidheiser defaced a patriotic slogan in his room to read "Forget Pearl Harbor."

SELLING AND LARGE RECEIPTS CUT WHEAT

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, March 15—Hedge selling and large receipts at leading markets depressed wheat prices about a cent today, deliveries falling to new low ground for more than two weeks. Other gains weakened in sympathy with easiness in the bread cereal.

More favorable weather reports over the week-end from producing areas were further weakening influences. It was reported also that easing of the box car shortage would result in considerable additional grain coming to northwest markets.

APPROPRIATIONS DELAY ASSEMBLY'S ADJOURNMENT

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 15—Hopes for sine die adjournment of the Ohio general assembly about April 1 were dimmed today by another delay in disposition of the $369,000,000 biennial appropriation bill.

Chairman Paul H. Ballard of the house finance committe had predicted it would be ready for a vote in the house today.

Today, however, he said he did not know when it would be ready.

The bill, carrying funds for operations of the state government in 1943-44, must be held up await action on other measures proposing additional expenditures.

For every new expenditure item added to the bill, other items in it must be trimmed to make room because the over-all figure of $369,000,000 will not be increased, Ballard asserted.

Major business in the legislature this week is the bill to increase the working hours of women and minors which is expected to come to a vote in the senate Tuesday or Wednesday.

The senate commerce and labor committee will conduct another hearing tonight on proposed legislation to obtain an extra $5,000,000 a year in unemployment insurance contributions from war plants.

Chinese Report Jap Offensive Collapses

By The Associated Press

CHUNGKING, March 15—The Chinese high command declared today the big Japanese offensive which began March 8 along a 100-mile stretch of the Yangtze river from the Japanese base at Yochow near the border of Hunan and Hupeh provinces had collapsed and that most of 20,000 enemy troops were under harassing retreat.

SOME STOCKS MAKE GAINS

Favorites Advance but Many Leaders Unable To Make Headway.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 15—Assorted favorites, including rails, continued to edge into new high-ground for the past year or longer in today's stock market although many leaders were unable to make headway.

Scattered advances of a point or so were in evidence near the fourth hour and losses, on the whole, were in minor fractions.

Better share performers included Goodyear, American Telephone and Deere. Occasional stumblers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Westinghouse, United Aircraft, DuPont and International Nickel.

KISKA

meter and 37 millimeter cannon shells.

Many of the enemy's anti-aircraft guns failed before today's five minute reception was over.

Many buildings took fire, but this is not the worst of the bombing. If our 50,000 pounds of explosives shook the ground at Kiska today as much as the bombs shook the ground at Guadalcanal, then there will be frightenest Japanese awaiting our next raid and frightened Japanese can't shoot so straight the next time.

Our raiders were especially effective today because there were many targets to work on. The Japanese have installed a submarine base, an almost completed runway and a seaplane base with two hangars, radio installations and barracks, together with stores of ammunition and fuel dumps.

But the latter are hard to find because the enemy has burrowed deep. In the main camp area bombs were dropped on barracks and tents. Barracks are about 15 feet by 40 feet and single tents about 20 feet in diameter. Both are set deep in the ground.

Before the Japanese erects his canvas tent he installs elaborate earth works to shield it from bombs and shellings.

STRIKE OF JANITORS CLOSES DAYTON SCHOOLS

49 Buildings Shut Down In Wage Dispute.

By The Associated Press

DAYTON, O., March 15 — Every one of Dayton's 49 public schools were closed today as 140 non-teaching employes struck to enforce demands for a pay increase.

Supt. Emmerson Landis ordered the closing an hour after classes opented "to protect the health of the children." He said temperatures in class rooms averaged 54 degrees, 18 below normal.

Charles J. Bauer, business agent for the AFL municipal employes' union, said he had been ordered to "win the strike and I am going to win it."

Carl Eberhart, a member of the Dayton board of education, issued a formal statement signed by all board members asserting "the board will not enter into a collective agreement with any organized group representing its employes."

He added that courts had held school boards lacked authority to enter bargaining agreements and the board would observe the ruling. A special meeting was expected to be called shortly.

Wool Demand Great, But Supplies Scarce

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, March 15—The Commercial Bulletin said of the Boston wool market Saturday:

"Wool trading has assumed an unusual aspect here, with heavy business reported by dealers in a market almost bare of spot supplies. Few sales of spot lots have been made, yet the turnover has aggregated up into the millions of pounds, through business done in wools enroute from various foreign markets.

"Mills have been buying such shipments in volume from Montevideo.

"Dealers have continued to do some contracting in the west, notwithstanding the pending action for a government take-over of the clip. Several million pounds of clips on the sheep's back are understood to have been sold by growers in Wyoming and other states."

The paper published the following unchanged Ohio quotations:

Domestic fleeces — Delaine unwashed 49-50; ½ blood combing 52-54; ¼ blood combing 53-54.

Nurses Urged To Register

District Association Joins in Appeal for All on Inactive List To Report Whereabouts.

Members of District No. 7, Ohio State Nurses association, of which Mrs. Grace Smith of Marion is president, are joining other nurses' organizations throughout the state in a movement to register every graduate nurse in Ohio, whether active or inactive, to aid in relieving the present shortage of nurses due to the war.

The urgent need for nurses who have been inactive for any period of time was voiced in a statement to the nurses of Ohio by Governor Bricker recently when he urged "every graduate nurse to cooperate with the national inventory of graduate registered nurses. "It is your patriotic duty to advise your country of your whereabouts in case of local, state or national emergency," he said. Registration with the inventory should not be confused with draft, he pointed out and explained that both registration and service are strictly voluntary.

Questionnaires Used

Postage free questionnaires have been mailed to every registered nurse who did not participate in the first nursing survey by the U. S. Public Health Service through special state agents, and the governor is urging any nurse who has not yet filled out and returned her questionnaire card to do so at once.

In Marion graduate nurses, whether or not they have filled out their questionnaire, are asked to register with Miss Marie Fulton at the Nurses' Official registry at 199 Oney avenue. A number of nurses have moved without notifying the registry of a change in address and a new registration will bring the files up to date Mrs. Smith points out. Graduate nurses, whether they are on active duty now or have not followed their profession for some time are urged to register. In discussing the shortage of nurses, Mrs. Smith pointed out that even if nurses could not go on full time duty a part time program could be worked out which would relieve the situation locally to an appreciable degree.

All Urged To Report

Any nurse who has not received a questionnaire card should write for one immediately to Mrs. Elizabeth P. August, R. N., Special State Agent, 50 East Broad street, Columbus. Private duty nurses are asked to report themselves as active if they have had a case within 30 days prior to filling out the card, Mrs. August states. Some private duty nurses report themselves as unemployed simply because they are off duty at the time of mailing their cards, according to Mrs. August.

At a meeting of the nurses of District No. 7, Monday night at the Bucyrus City hospital the group inaugurated the custom of bringing contributions of candy, fruit or other refreshments to be donated to the Marion canteen for service men. Mrs. Griffith, technician at the Bucyrus hospital, was the guest speaker and talked on new drugs and treatments.

WORKERS GIVE $8,000

By The United Press

HINGHAM, MASS.—In a single day workers at the Bethlehem-Hingham shipyard raised $8,000 for the family of a fellow-worker who perished in the Cocoanut Grove holocaust. The money has been used to set up a trust fund for Mrs. John Griffin of Milton and her five children. Administrators of the fund are representatives of the shipyard's union.

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Overweight

It may seem strange to recommend a Lenten reducing diet this year when all food is being reduced and theoretically people are going to go without their full quota of food whether they want to or not.

But I believe there are good reasons for it nevertheless. On any priorities or point-rationing scheme I do not believe anyone in the United States is going to starve, or even go hungry. And the foods which are obtainable in good quantity are of a concentrated nature, so much so that by eating them injudiciously most individuals are likely to gain rather than lose weight.

Overweight is "a national health problem of the first order," according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. I believe that a great many of the disabilities of middle age are due to overweight. I mentioned the other day that painful feet are more often due to overweight than to any other single cause. Besides that, certain types of arthritis are far more frequent in overweights than in normal weights. Especially is this true of the arthritis of the knee that comes on with middle age, due, of course, to the amount of weight-bearing that falls upon this very delicate joint.

High blood pressure, diabetes and Bright's disease are the accompaniments of overweight and although I am not convinced of cause and effect, the relationship is there just the same. I saw a woman patient with heart disease the other day and it was evident that the first step in treatment would be to reduce the weight 30 to 40 pounds: this would lessen the load on the heart and prevent it from pumping blood over such a large area.

Another condition related to overweight is gallbladder disease, gallstones, and so on. Added danger is the fact that if an operation is necessary, the overweight person is far less resistant to infections than those of normal weight.

Our Lenten reducing diet we have planned so far as we are able to predict food rationing. Many foods that are ideal for a reducing diet—green vegetables, lettuce, cantaloupe, radishes, celery—are to be withdrawn from the market, but probably during Lent you can still some of them. So here is your chance. Next summer you can start a victory garden with these and do your reducing on your own farm products.

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

"HOW DARE that man attempt to spy on me," Philip Veritzen said, and seeing that the great impresario was too absorbed in this offense to his dignity to heed my father's injection I said softly, "I'll see to Georges, Father," and walked to the door through which Olina had whisked Georges, at my father's command.

I was in too much of a hurry to knock, but was sorry I had not when the opened door showed me Georges standing with Olina's hands clasped in his, his dark eyes holding hers in an eloquent interchange of glances.

I recalled my earlier judgment that Georges had a "roving eye," not noting the ordinary pretty girl, for the fastidious and fascinating young king always had been able to intrigue the imagination of the beautiful and rarely gifted women in his world.

Romantic Reunion

But both Olina and Mary had once pricked the bubble of Georges self-esteem; not vanity, for of that Georges has almost none. Olina had run away from the idea of an arranged marriage with him, while Mary had chosen Noel in preference to Georges and his throne.

And now Fate had brought this glamorous fugitive back into the lives of Olina and Mary and her husband, Noel, and Georges appeared to be pickup up the pattern of romance where he had left off weaving it. He now held Olina's hands in a loverlike clasp, while, only a few hours ago he had been taxing Mary with being unhappy.

Inadvertently I had been a witness of both romantic scenes.

Olina's cheeks, as she saw me, flushed hotly, and involuntarily she tried to draw her hands away from their pleasurable imprisonment. But Georges must have clasped them tighter, and his eyes held dancing, mocking gleams as they followed Olina's to mine.

Pretty Compliment

"Lucky you're a woman, Aunt Madge," he said. "If you were anything masculine, from nine to ninety, you'd be so eaten up with envy of me that you'd have a stroke."

"I fancy I might manage to survive," I improvised rapidly, "but my father wishes you to look this door. He thinks Milner is on his way up here."

"Milner!" they gasped as with one voice. "What for?"

"I don't know," I said curtly. "Lock the door."

As I heard the click of the lock my father gave a nod of approval, saying 'Good work!" then looked around with the air of a general planning his campaign.

Spencer Sets the Stage

"We mustn't have the appearance of expecting him," he said. "Margaret, please go sit beside Olga, both so far away you won't need to notice Milner unless he speaks directly to you. Better pretend to be absorbed in talking. Philip, suppose you and I sit in those chairs opposite each other, then when he knocks you will be taking just long enough in going to the door. And, Philip, treat him in ordinary fashion."

Already I was at Olga's side. The men took their seats and for a minute we sat rigidly waiting. Then the knock sounded. Philip Veritzen strode to the door and we heard his voice speaking with frosty courtesy.

'Ah, Mr. Milner! Good evening. Won't you come in?"

The Stars Say—

For Tuesday, March 16

MOST propitious auguries are noted in this day's astrological forecast for those seeking favors, preferment, promotion or other tokens of appreciation from persons in place and power. It would be well to approach these with confidence. However, it might be amiss to stress the social, sentimental or romantic angle too far.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a favorable year, in which the fortunes and position may be put on a firm basis. It is time to work for promotion, preferment, and other signs of cooperation from elders and employers.

A child born on this day, while having many sterling characteristics and talents may be disposed to capitalize social gifts to its injury.

HURRY, TIM—PHANTASMO SCRAMMED INSIDE THIS HOUSE! WE'VE GOT TO TRY AND KEEP HIM IN SIGHT—
FOOTPRINTS! TRAILING THROUGH THE DUST TOWARD THAT ROOM!—
NOW WE'LL GET SOMEWHERE! COME ON—EMPTY
NOT EVEN A PIECE OF FURNITURE!
WE'RE CHASING SHADOWS! NOT A SIGN OF—
S-SPUD! LOOK!—

I FINALLY TALKED COLONEL HOOPER INTO GETTING BACK TO WORK ON OUR VICTORY GARDEN!! HE'S PUTTING IN ALL HIS TIME ON IT, NOW!
AND I GET HALF OF EVERYTHING HE GROWS! I'M ALREADY LOOKING FOWARD TO THOSE DELICIOUS, FRESH VEGETABLES!!
HELLO, MRS. WHITE. YES COL. HOOPER AND I ARE PLANTING A VICTORY GARDEN!!
NO, WE WON'T FORGET YOU!! YOU CAN COUNT ON US FOR A BUSHEL OF PEAS!!
CASPER, AT THE RATE YOU'VE BEEN PROMISING VEGETABLES TO THE NEIGHBORS, I FIGURE THAT IN ADDITION TO OUR CROP WE'LL HAVE TO SU CARLOAD OF PRODUCE TO MAKE GO

GOOD MORNING, HONEY—ISN'T IT A LOVELY DAY? IT MAKES ONE HAPPY, JUST TO KNOW ONE IS ALIVE
GLORYOSKY! THAT'S THE WAY I FEEL, TOO—
I HOPE YOU WILL ALWAYS BE HAPPY, DEAR—THIS TIME LAST YEAR I WAS A LONELY, SAD-HEARTED, EMBITTERED OLD WOMAN—A PRISONER SURROUNDED BY A WALL OF MOURNFUL MEMORIES
"THEN YOU DROPPED OUT OF THE SKY LIKE A LITTLE FAIRY GODMOTHER—BRINGING ME THE MAGIC GIFTS OF FAITH, HOPE AND HAPPINESS—I CAN NEVER REPAY YOU FOR—
PAY ME? G'WAN, YOU'RE JU FOOLIN'—I HAD NO PLACE T LIVE—NOTHIN' TO EAT—THEN YOU LET ME AN' ZERO LIVE HERE AN' TREATED US SWE —AN' IF I WAS RIC I'D PAY YOU A MILLION DOLLA HONEST—

DID YOU CALL ME WIFE-AN' TELL HER I HAD THE BUTCHER SEND OVER A TEN-POUND ROAST?
SHE WASN'T HOME-BUT HER SISTER ANSWERED THE 'PHONE-SO I TOLD HER!!!
YOU NIT-WIT!! HOW MANY TIMES MUST I TELL YOU--THE ONLY RELATIVES I LIKE ARE DISTANT ONES AND THE DISTANCE CAN'T BE TOO FAR?!!
TOO LATE!! ALL MAGGIE'S RELATIVES ARE HERE-EXCEPT THE ONES THAT ARE IN JAIL—
I BROUGHT SOME EXTRA DISHES-AS MAGGIE NEVER HAS ENOUGH-
WHEN DO WE EAT
